SOME TRIP

Is That of Mr. Theodore Kirk and Mr. Stanton Clift—Accompanied
Part of the Way by E. T.
Kirk and W. N. Stockton

Starting over a month ago, Messrs.
Theodore Kirk and Stanton Clift
have been enjoying life, riding in Mr.
Kirk's Packard through the big cities of the east and dining at feasts fit for a king. The following is the logical order of the most important cities
passed through:

Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus,
Wheeling, Pittsburg, Hagerstown,
Md.; Stanton, Va.; Old Point Comfort,
Baltimore, Wilmington, Atlantic City,
Washington, Richmond, Oxford, N. C.; Durham, Winston-Salem, Charlotte,
Asheville, Knoxville, Chattanooga,
Nashville, Louisville and Lexington.

While in Baltimore they attended the meeting of the Tobacco Association. During the trip of many thousand miles only three tires were changed.

KENTUCKY NEARLY FREE FROM QUARANTINE.

Washington, July 15.—Bullitt and Oldham counties are released from quarantine for the foot and mouth disease by an order effective July 12.
This leaves Jefferson county the only quarantined territory in the state of Kentucky, and this county is classed as a restricted area, the quarantine regulations in restricted areas being the most lenient of all. In classifying Jefferson county as a restricted area,
it is stipulated that the Bourbon Stock Yards at Louisville shall be used for handling live stock for immediate slaughter only.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

For Baseball in Maysville For the Rest of the Season.

The directors of the Ohio State League are very anxious to place the Chillicothe team in this city, claiming that we are a good baseball town
and have an ideal location on the circuit. So interested are they that President Gabelman of the Portsmouth club, made a trip to Maysville yesterday and held a consultation with a local business man. So generous were the league's terms that baseball for this season seems almost a certainty. And that local business man left for Cincinnati this morning to look over some players. So let us throw away our hammers and all get behind it and boost.

AIR REFRIGERATOR FOR WASH- INGTON OPERA HOUSE.

The managers of the Washington
Opera House leave today for Cincinnati to investigate a refrigerating plant which it is proposed to install in the Washington Opera House, by which the theater will be kept constantly supplied with cool, fresh air
during the heated term.

The progressive managers of this popular play house recognize that such a plant would add much to the comfort and convenience of the patrons and are going to do all in their power to make the Washington the coolest place in the city.

ATTENTION.

For the next fifteen days will pay 75 cents each for good, plump spring turkeys weighing three pounds each.

DOLL BABIES

De Nuzle Windows Look Like Lilliput
Land.

Talk about doll babies, well you just ought to take a look in De Nuzle's windows. There are old, dolls, young dolls, brides, grooms, boys, girls, barbies, nannies and dolls of every character and description, and each little mother who has entrusted her baby to the big Market street store is confidently hoping that her own precious will receive one of the prizes to be offered at the doll show on Saturday afternoon at the Washington Opera House.

Some of the dolls are pretty, indeed, and some are wearing that smile which must be a revelation to the chronic grouchy; some are serious, with knitted brows, evidently much concerned over the great contest of which they are a part and some seemed to be very much bored at being forced to occupy so conspicuous a position, subjected to the gaze of every passerby, but most of these being young ladies, it is safe to assume that were they able to hear the complimentary comments their bored expressions would give way to blushes
of satisfaction.

There are several remarkable dolls
among this splendid collection. There is one which is 65 years old and the clothes it wears are the same age.
Just think of a doll that has been lauded from generation to generation, that has been nursed, dressed and undressed hundreds of times by several generations of little mothers,
and is today on display in good condition with all its clothes intact and still in possession of all its nose, both eyes and its hair. There are not many children of this generation who will be able to pass their babies on in such good condition, but what's the odds,
so long as they are happy.

There is another doll just a few years younger, also in perfect condition, and there is one that is wearing a lace cap, hand-made eighty years ago.

As a matter of fact, each and every baby on display undoubtedly has some interesting incident connected with its life and each is as dear to its little mother as the little mother is to the big mother.

When you pass these interesting windows stop and take a look, and there will arise in you a feeling which is hard to describe, but you will turn away a better individual, glad that the world is so full of those dear little mothers from whom the grownups can learn many valuable lessons toward making the world a sweeter and a better place to live.

So stop in passing and see the display of doll babies and on Saturday afternoon go to the Washington Opera House and see the young folks in all their glory. Do all you can to bring joy and happiness to the little children, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

BUSY DAY

Was Thursday—Local Police Kept Busy During the Entire Day.

Arrests of all kinds took place
Thursday and the path to the jail was kept hot.

Frank Lyle, a colored fellow, was arrested and thought to be crazy or doped. He and his daniel, Fanny Morehead, were trying to tear down his home.

Patrick Henry Hunt, who claims he is an Old Virginia negro, was examined Thursday by Judge Rice and discovered to be partly insane. He was sent to the county jail, where it is thought he will recover in a few days.
Joe Marshall was locked up for beating his wife. It is claimed that in an argument he turned upon her, severely cutting her on the head and breast.

Fred Minton was arrested by Officer Stewart, charged with disorderly conduct.
They will all be given a hearing
in police court this afternoon.

"Turkey" Wright was arrested for drunk and disorderly conduct.

ENJOYABLE PARTY IN THE COUNTY.

One of the most enjoyable parties in this county in years was the one at the home of Miss Adelaide Mefford on last Wednesday night. Games of all descriptions were played and an old-fashioned four-se dance was a feature. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were:
Misses Grace Steel, Frances Tritsch, Nancy McQuillan, Josephine and Phi-lomena Tritsch, Anna McQuillan, Helen Rietar; Messrs. Joseph Tritsch, Raymond Adamson, Jacob Fisher, Charles McQuillan, Harry Kruepferbeck and James Early, of Cincinnati.

When you see the very extraordinary shoe values we are offering, you'll wonder how and why we make such low prices. The fact is we must unload all summer shoes. Low prices will do it.

the gas pipe and when the match was applied an explosion followed, burn-

WHEN THE WAR IS OVER.

On the day before yesterday we saw, that immediately following four great wars, the industrial forces of the countries engaged had greatly increased in numbers, and on yesterday, that, because of the extraordinary discipline imposed by the wars, the efficiency of those forces had been increased. And the great lesson that should be forcibly brought home to this country from an understanding of those two economic facts is this:

As soon as the present foreign war is over, instead of a competition with a decrepit, ill-managed and unorganized industry, the United States is going to be obliged to meet a competition with races fecund and sufficiently numerous to carry on industry and actually bettered for the purposes of increased production, when compared with their efficiency before the war.

If that condition is to come, and come it will, under conditions of impoverishment owing to the destruction of much industrial and corporate wealth which will act as a spur to productivity, the United States must be prepared to meet the economic onslaught upon its industries; be ready to engage in the battle of fair prices against enforced cheapness; in the contest between decent living conditions, the result of decades of peace and prosperity, and the burdens of impoverishment, high taxation, low living conditions and absolute obligation to live close to the line of life maintenance which will be the moving spirit of European industrial economy.

This opens up a vital question to our manufacturers, merchants, workers, thinkers and true politicians. Is the present tariff position of the United States one that is calculated to protect American organized industry, American labor and consequently American prosperity from the tremendous strain which will be put upon all three "when the war is over?"

If our present tariff position continues until these conditions obtain in Europe, our industries will be face to face with a competition against which they can not survive and must go down to destruction, the victims of that great Democratic blunder, the Underwood tariff law.

It may seem a little early to be borrowing trouble, but foresight is vastly superior to hindsight, and with the coming election a little more than a year off it is well for the voters to begin to understand thoroughly the condition which this country must inevitably meet to the end that they may go to the polls sufficiently well informed to protect themselves from the destruction which will certainly follow a continuation of the present policy.

To judge from appearances is exceedingly rash. The man with side whiskers, a high hat and Prince Albert coat who carries a grip is not always the traveling agent for the famous Kickapoo liver remedies. He may be a piano tuner.

The average youth makes the mistake of fancying that what he needs for success in business is a lot of "front" when it is merely a lot of backbone.

A man just loves to preach economy and then sit around with a cocktail in one hand and a perfect in the other and watch his wife practice it.

Nothing disappoints a woman quite so much as nothing to be disappointed over.

Those who wait for dead men's shoes are likely to acquire many stone bruises.

Most of us are lightning sketch artists when it comes to drawing conclusions.

Some people are rubbed the wrong way no matter which way they are rubbed.

Ambition is likely to strike the fish and the fisherman at the same time.

Some people act as if they regard common sense as cheap and undesirable.

You have to make some men talk, but most women are self-starters.

A Contradiction.

The superintendent of the public schools of Auburn, N. Y., declares that the modern school girl's dress is "a moral menace." But to this declaration, Mrs. Alice Emerson, of the Pittsburg Press Club, replied warmly the other day:

"So far from the modern girl's dress being a menace to morality, it's an encouragement to it. It displays a girl's beauty to perfection. Thus it brings about love, engagements, marriages. The percentage of marriages, you know, has greatly increased since dress has grown more—or more modern."

Mrs. Elison Fenner added with a smile: "A friend of mine entertained a dozen young men and girls at her country house during the holidays. Well, thanks to modern dress and modern dances, when that gay dozen left for home there were thirty-seven engagements among the party."

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING
IS THE ROAD
TO ECONOMY.

DELICIOUS AND HEALTHFUL DISHES.

We do not have corn meal products on our tables as frequently as we might and this is unfortunate in view of the fact that this is wholesome food and easily prepared.

Corn Meal Mush.—Stir the meal into salted water that is boiling. Cook slowly, stirring frequently. Use three tins as much water as meal.

Fried Mush.—When making corn meal mush prepare sufficient for two meals. Mold one-half in a bread pan or square mold. This will keep fresh for several days and makes an excellent breakfast. Slice the molded mush, roll each slice in flour and fry brown and crisp in dripping or in hot butter.

Fried Celery.—The outside stalks of celery are coarse and strong and not pleasing on the table, but cooked, they become tender and delicate. Cut the celery in inch or inch and a half pieces, dip these in egg, then roll in flour that is seasoned with salt and pepper. Place in a frying basket and immerse in deep, hot fat. When brown place on a cloth to drain and serve at once. The celery should be dried on a cloth before dipping in the egg, else the egg and flour will not adhere. This dish is called celery sticks and the crisp, brown morsels make a pretty garnish for all meats.

Stuffed Baked Peppers.—Cut the tops from the pepper, so they make a cap that can be fastened on again. Remove every seed and place the peppers in fresh cool water for an hour or two. This draws out the hotness and the longer you keep the peppers in the fresh water the milder they will be. Fill with a forcemeat made from meat and rice. Ham and rice is especially good and chicken and rice, well seasoned, is also delicious. Mushrooms may be added to the filling. Put the caps on the stuffed peppers and set them in a pan in the oven. Pour a little hot water around them so they will not burn on the bottoms and brush well with butter. As they bake baste with the water and butter in the pan.

How Is Cheese Served With Pie? The cheese may be passed separately or a small piece placed on the plate with the pie.

Very beautiful cheese dishes are shown now for this service. They consist of the covered dish, the cheese knife, which is sometimes a scotch-sliced affair when the cheese is soft, and small platters. This service is of cut glass or of china.

REPORTS FROM WEST FRONT CONFLICT AS TO VARIOUS ADVANCES.

London.—Striking suddenly the German army of the Crown Prince has again thrust forward deeply into the French line defending Verdun, according to the Berlin official communication received here tonight. This report which is in complete conflict with the French midnight statement, claims that the Germans pressed forward for more than five-eighths of a mile on a front of nearly two miles, northeast of Vienna-Le-Chateau, in the Argonne, their momentum carrying them up to the very lines of the French artillery, part of which was destroyed.

The Germans report that they captured nearly 3,000 unarmored prisoners, two field cannons, two revolving guns, and a great quantity of supplies of various sorts.

Contradictory to these claims the French war office at Paris tonight states that at no point did the German advance exceed 433 yards and that it now not only has been definitely halted, but the French by vigorous counter attacks have gained a footing in the German lines at a number of places along the front in addition to regaining command of the Bois de Mouray, a small wood.

Artillery combats of great violence are being waged in the Souchez region to the north of Arras between the Meuse and the Moselle and in Flanders where the German shells, according to the French reply by bombarding Middlekirk. Arras is rapidly being reduced to a shambles by the German shells, according to the French report. The cathedral quarters suffering considerable damage. Soldiers also have been bombed, the Germans pouring a perfect rain of heavy shells into the city.

ASSAULT ON BARRANDELLES RE-NEWED BY ALLIED FORCES.

Athens.—Another determined assault by land and water on the Dardanelles is being made by the allied forces. After a series of desperate attacks on the Turkish position north of Krithia the Anglo-French forces have captured two important Turkish positions located on the further hills. One part of the allied fleet is now bombarding the southern end of the Gallipoli peninsula with a hot fire.

Several warships inside the Dardanelles are engaging the force on the Asiatic side. Accompanying the report of reverses to the Turkish army came insistent rumors that Turkey is weary of war.

It is declared that their supply of ammunition is running very low and there is no prospect of the supply being replenished because of Roumania's refusal to allow munitions to cross her border.

PACKING HOUSES PROTEST THAT ENGLAND IS INTERFERING WITH TRADE WITH NEUTRAL COUNTRIES.

Washington.—Representatives of the Chicago packing houses called at the State Department and demanded that this government take steps to stop interference by Great Britain with their trade with neutral countries. The Department announced after the conference that it would make representations to Great Britain.

The packers described the attitude of Great Britain as incredible and announced that they will be compelled to stop all trade with neutral countries unless they receive assurances that their products will be allowed to reach the ports to which they are consigned. It is estimated that this would mean the loss of millions of dollars to American producers and farmers.

UNITED STATES SUBMARINE CAN MAKE RETURN TRIP OVER OCEAN.

New York.—A submarine that can cross the Atlantic ocean and return to New York without stopping for fuel is soon to be added to the United States navy. The new boat, the G-3, is undergoing final tests at the plant of the Lake Torpedo Boat Company, at Bridgeport, Conn., its builders. It has proved a cruising radius of 5,500 miles at a speed of eleven knots an hour. At a lower rate of speed it can go even further without replenishing its supply of fuel.

HAIL! HAIL! HAIL!

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Donn's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. S. Neal, 497 W. Second St., Maysville, says: "One of my family had a great deal of trouble from a lame back and weak kidneys. Donn's Kidney Pills made the patient better."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Donn's Kidney Pills—the name that Mrs. Neal recommends. Foster-McBirn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

We will write your tobacco hail insurance in the same old reliable company we have been placing you in for the past two years, the J. W. Clay, of Lexington, who have adjusted every loss we have ever had to the entire satisfaction of the insured. So why take a chance in trying out a new company when you know this one has never had a controversy over paying a loss? Is this not recommendation enough? Remember the cost for the season will be no more than it will cost you to insure, say ten days prior to the time to house the tobacco. When in town drop in and let us fix you up a policy.

LITTLE IDEAS BRING BIG RESULTS.

John Ericsson and the Ironclad. There apparently is some way to meet any emergency, and this is strikingly set forth in the construction of the Ironclad during the Civil War. Up to this period vessels were so slightly protected, and such an advance had been made in guns and gunnery, that the war vessels at the beginning of that conflict were easily made an effort to overcome it by some means and naturally the suggestion of John Ericsson to build an ironclad was seriously considered.

Ericsson was a Swede by birth and from a boy showed remarkable ability as an inventor. When he was only 11 years old he constructed with his own hands and after his own plans, a miniature sawmill, and had made numerous drawings of a complicated character. From this on his mind was constantly occupied with new inventions. Chief among his inventions before the ironclad was the screw propeller, which revolutionized steam navigation. This was in 1836. The year following he built a vessel having twin-screw propellers.

It was in 1859, when Ericsson was 36 years of age, that he came to America. His first work of construction in this country was his designs for the screw warship Princeton, which was the first vessel to have the propelling machinery below the water line out of the reach of a hostile shot. The Princeton is correctly regarded as the pioneer of modern naval construction and also as the foundation of the steam marine of the world.

The ironclad was no sudden thought with Ericsson. As early as 1854 he presented to Emperor Napoleon III, plans of a partially submerged armored vessel, with guns in a turret located centrally on the deck. This was the first suggestion for the "Monitor," which was designed and built by him in Greenpoint, N. Y., in 1861. The contract with the government was signed on October 4 of that year and it was necessary in order to rush the work, to parcel it out to many contractors.

The amount done by Ericsson himself is almost incredible. He had practically nothing but his rude model to start with, and as there were no precedents for the vessel, nothing could be made until he supplied the plans. It all seems to have existed in his brain, needing only to be put upon paper to become intelligible to other people, and to this task he devoted himself with tireless energy.

Hull, machinery, turret, gunmounts and details of all descriptions grew from his designs, sketches of parts and pieces of machinery, as he wished them made, going from his drawing table almost like sheets from a printing press. These were usually rough pencil sketches that had to be perfected by his assistants, though in cases of great urgency his sketches had to go direct to the shops for the workmen to decipher as best they could.

Such speed was made with the work that the ship was launched on January 30, 1862, with her main engines installed on board. This was 101 working days from the date of the contract. About three weeks afterward the first ironclad had a trial trip which was such a dismal failure that the vessel had to be towed home. The defects, however, were remedied in two weeks and a final and successful trip was run and a favorable report was made to the United States Navy.

Then came the trial at arms between the Monitor and the Merrimack, which is too familiar a subject to treat in this connection. Its entire success in this encounter has been questioned, but the United States government was so well satisfied that a fleet of monitors was quickly built, and Ericsson's system was taken up by European maritime powers and carried out by them on a large scale.

In 1869 Ericsson constructed for the Spanish government a fleet of thirty steam gunboats which was intended to guard Cuba against filibustering parties. He continued his inventions almost to the close of his life in 1889, having, after the Monitor, invented the steam fire engine and he was one of the first to apply the principle of surface-condensation to steam navigation. In 1890 Ericsson's body was removed to his birthplace in Sweden.

DRAFT OF REPLY TO GERMAN NOTE IS TAKING FORM.

Cornish, N. H.—President Wilson is making progress in the development of his ideas as to the next step in the policy to be pursued by the United States toward the submarine warfare of Germany. He spent practically the entire day working on the question and allowing the impression which he had gathered from repeated reading of the last German note to take shape. He wrote a long letter to Secretary Lansing and received one from him. It was said that the communications had to do with the German situation but nothing of their contents was given out. It was understood that Mr. Wilson had not received from Mr. Lansing the formal memorandum on the German question which he asked for several days ago.

Withholds Final Judgment. It was indicated that he was still withholding final judgment until he had had an opportunity of discussing the question personally with Mr. Lansing and others of his cabinet.

Mr. Wilson will return to Washington in time for next Tuesday's cabinet meeting and on that occasion he will take the first opportunity of conferring with his official family over the German question. The President spent the afternoon indoors. For more than an hour he wrote steadily but no indication as to what he was putting on paper was given out.

The President received many telegrams and letters bearing on the situation from different parts of the country. Editorials from newspapers also came to his attention.

BLOWN UP BY MINE.

Copenhagen.—The Swedish schooner Daisy, carrying coal from England to Sweden, has been blown up by a mine off Aland Island in the Baltic. Her captain and four men were drowned. A Stockholm dispatch says the remainder of the crew landed there today.

DELUGE OF AIRCRAFT TO SWEEP ON GERMANY PLANTS NOW PROPOSED.

London.—The greatest single air attack made against the Germans in this war was organized today when thirty-five aeroplanes of the allies bombarded the railway station at Vignellus-Les-Hattonchattel. According to the official report of the French war office, 171 bombs of 191 pounds each were dropped on the station, a big store house for ammunition and supplies of all kinds for use of men in the trenches.

The station has taken a prominent part in the recent successes of the Germans along the western front, having supplied the army in the forest of Apremont.

The French official report states that the bombs dropped by the aviators started a number of fires and explosions with much resultant damage. The aeroplanes were greeted with violent cannonading from the Germans but all of them escaped with little or no damage.

Coincident with the attack came the announcement of the movement of aeroplanes in its scope by which the allies hope to overwhelm the Germans. It calls for the construction of 10,000 aeroplanes to deluge German ammunition plants, supply stations and routes with bombs for the destruction by aircraft of the fifteen railroad bridges across the Rhine and nine across the Meuse by which the German front is supplied with munitions and for the creation of a new cabinet portfolio to be known as the Ministry of Aviation which shall have full control of the war by airmen.

By September 1 Great Britain will have started the daily air raids on Germany.

TURKEY WANTS PEACE, BUT GERMAN IS IN THE WAY.

Rome.—Reliable reports from Constantinople convey the information that the sentiment there in favor of a separate peace is continually growing, but that the Germans are seizing all premises and offices wherein any spark of the confederation might start.

The Germans dominate the situation solely by force. A coup might save Turkey, but against this contingency the Germans have taken every precaution.

CARRANZA OFFICIALS BRINGING PEACE OUT OF CHAOS IN MEXICO.

Washington.—State Department advices from Mexico City late today reported the capital quiet, with absolute order prevailing and the trains arriving from Vera Cruz with food supplies. Stores and banks have not been re-opened, pending arrangements for currency circulation.

Communication between the capital and Vera Cruz by rail and telegraph continued and the Carranza government department was said to be under process of organization as rapidly as possible. Consul General Shanklin advised that General Gonzales had given preference to provision trains over troop trains and that arrangements for soup kitchens to relieve the capital's destitute were progressing, with the hope that it would soon be possible to feed from 8,000 to 10,000 persons daily.

Additional dispatches confirmed the report that the Carranza forces in control of the city, had recaptured the water works from the retreating Zapata army and that the danger of a water famine had been averted.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

is such good tobacco you feel like you could just eat the smoke!

Yes, sir, P. A. puts a razor edge on your smoke-appetite—division that's nobby enough to be photographed!

The toppy red bag, 5c

No other pipe and cigarette tobacco can be like Prince Albert, because no other tobacco can be made like Prince Albert. The patented process fixes that—and removes the tongue-bite and throat parch! Let that digest!

And that line of conversation is 24 kt., whether you play P. A. in your old jimmy pipe or roll it into a makin's cigarette. For you can put your little old blue-pencil O. K. right here that Prince Albert is a regular double-header for a single admission—as joy'us to your tongue and taste one way as the other!

Will the "rollers" kindly step forward for a spell and get some of this listen into their systems? Because Prince Albert certain and sure jams more joy into a makin's paper than ever before was figured up on two hands!

In the plain language of the hills, you can't any more resist such makin's tobacco than a bullfrog can pass up a piece of red flannel! Because P. A. hands to you everything any cigarette roller ever dreamed-out—rare flavor, and aroma, and mildness, and body; absolutely the best bet—the best smoke you or any other man ever did roll and put the fire to! Men, we tell you to wise up.

P. A. is crimp cut and stays put—which means rolling P. A. is as easy as falling off a log. And it's good to remember P. A. is put up in the toppy red bag especially for you "rollers." Sells for the price of a jitney ride, 5c.

Now, will the "pipers" kindly open both ears? Here's tobacco that has made it possible for three men to smoke pipes where one smoked before!

Any way you hook it up, Prince Albert is tobacco insurance! Yes, sir, it guarantees your future as well as your present smokings! And just makes your tongue so jimmy pipe joy'us that your smoke appetite grows whopping big. You men who "dassn't," we say you go to P. A., natural-like! Because there isn't a bite in a barrel of this national joy smoke.

Unlimber your old jimmy pipe! Dig it out of the dark corner, jam it brimful of P. A. And make fire with a match! Me-o-my!

You get acquainted with Prince Albert in the toppy red bag, 5c; or tidy red tin, 10c, but for the double-back-action-joy, you buy a crystal-glass pound humidor. And then you're set! You see, it has the sponge-moistener top and keeps P. A. at the highest top-notch point of perfection. Prince Albert is also sold in pound and half-pound tin humidors.

TREAT YOUR FACE TO A SMILE TONIGHT.

Mirth, merriment, laughter, sells, surprises, good cheer and the distribution of prizes will be the program tonight at the "Baby Show."

We know this is the hottest weather of the season, but you are just as comfortable in the Washington Opera House as you are at home, and besides you are being amused and entertained and that causes you to forget just how hot it is. As advertised, this is the night the baby will be given away. It comes from the Kentucky State Home and please don't stay away, thinking you will have to take the little thing. If you don't want it, for we never force it on any one, and moreover, we have several applications for it and can place it in a good home without any trouble. Our advice is if you want to see who gets the baby, come early, in order to get a good seat. There will also be other prizes besides the baby and the usual number of good slides, snap-shots, etc.

Tomorrow afternoon all the children in Maysville are wanted at the Opera House, and there is big fun for the grownups as well. The dollies that have been in the doll party in De Nuzie's windows, will be there and there is a pleasant surprise for each and every child who entered its doll in this contest, in addition to the ten big prizes given to the prettiest, largest, funniest and so on, of these doll babies.

Beyond all odds this "Baby Show" is one of the happiest stunts that has ever been booked by the managers of the Washington Opera House.

HUMANE NOTES.

This extremely hot weather is hard on all animals, especially so on horses worked or driven under such a burning sun. The check-rein should be loosened so that the eyes can be lowered and thus shaded from the glare of sun and sky. Fewer horses would be blind if this rule were observed.

Horses should have water often during the day, not just once or twice. A bucket of water placed in the yard at night for animals to get a drink would lessen suffering from thirst and your dog would not be so likely to go mad as it may if neglected at this time of the year.

Practice humanity and unselfishness to your animals as you would want such humanity shown to you, were you dependent on a human being for your welfare and comfort. If they are not worth that much effort, better let some one have them who will take care of them.

A few days ago two boys were driving a poor, old, lame horse on East Second street. The weapon used to urge the old creature along was a huge blacksnake whip. When asked to whom that horse belonged, one fellow looked at the other, and then replied, "I don't know." They then whipped up and drove away. Does some grocer in this town deliver goods with such a team? That horse should be mercifully put to death, and a law passed prohibiting the use of blacksnake whips anywhere in the state.

HUMANITY.

Tinted Lenses

Tests in the laboratory of the Johns Hopkins University show that the glasses we use in manufacturing tinted lenses eliminates 100% of the injurious ultra-violet and violet rays and 95% of the blue rays of light. These are the rays that are irritating and are said to cause some forms of cataract. If your eyes are exposed to bright light, better have a pair of our tinted lenses. They add to your comfort.
